Dear Frank,

I thought I would give a part of my "Commencement" day to a call upon you — supposing that you had returned from your journey. — But, for yr. own sake, & your father's, I am glad your absence is to be prolonged still a week. — On my way hither Edw^d. S. Philbrick has handed me a contribution for Mrs. Nell, — wh. I sh^d. have passed along to you, — but will pay the bill, & send to your father. — I have paid the bill of the J. G. Cogswell books.
